SERVING GOD AND COMMUNITY

PLEASE PRAY FOR: Sylvia, Pete, Charlotte, Donna M., Jack, Ralph & Joyce, Garson & Elsie, Merla, Sue O., Dorothy, Bernice, Sue S., Harold & Betty, Dorothy P. and Don

UPDATE: Good news. It is not cancer. Thank you for all your prayers. Bad news. They don't know what is in my lungs so more experimenting. Keep praying please.

PRAYERS: A clogging friend of ours, Carol Lampman, was in emergency the same time I was. She fell and broke her nose in 3 places. She now has to wait for the swelling to go down before a specialist decides what to do.

HOUSING: Cody has asked if anyone knows of a house or apartment to rent around the Fenwick area. It also needs to be on the lower rent side cost wise.

BIRTHDAYS: Ayo Sanusi has a birthday on Tuesday.

GOSPEL HERALD: Anyone can access the Gospel Herald at gospelherald.org. The subscription is free and if you sign up for it you will be notified when a new issue has been posted. We are not certain about copying and printing for those without a computer.

EGGS, EGGS, EGGS: We have lots of eggs. Check out the copier room.

The Optimist & The Pessimist

One day the sun was shining brightly and the optimist said, "Great day isn't it?"

The pessimist replied, "The hot sun is going to burn the crops."

A day later, it rained. Again the optimist tried to engage his friend, but the pessimist's only response was, "All this rain will wash out the seed I planted."

Some time later the optimist took his friend duck hunting. An activity he really enjoyed. After the first duck was shot the optimist dispatched his dog to fetch the duck. The dog ran on top of the water, picked up the duck and ran back.

The optimist exclaimed, "Did you see that!"

The pessimist simply replied, "Dog can't swim, eh?"

If you don't enjoy what you have, how could you be happier with more?

The really happy person is the one who can enjoy the scenery on a detour.
